

Research related questions posed as part of the PRC Application 2023

- Please provide us with a brief statement about how participation in the Pacific Research Colloquium would help advance your career, research training or professional development - (100 words max)
- Provide a brief account of recently completed research that you have been involved in (for example, a completed project with an NGO or government agency that involved research) - (100 words max)
- Provide a brief account of recently completed research that you have been involved in (for example, a completed project with an NGO or government agency that involved research) - (100 words max)
- Please provide a proposal of a research project that aligns with your interests, by filling in the following:
 1. Title:
 2. Research problem & justification (100 words max):
 3. Aim(s):
 4. Research design and methods (100 words max):
 5. Research dissemination (50 words max):
- Please provide us with a brief statement about how participation in the Pacific Research Colloquium would help advance your career, research training or professional development (100 words max)