

Advancing Afghan Women's Rights

Jointly presented by the ANU Gender Institute, the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, and the Embassy of Islamic Republic of Afghanistan

TEQSA Provider ID: PRV12002 (Australian University)

CRICOS Provider #00120C

The situation for global gender equality continues to deteriorate, but Afghan women, who have suffered some of the greatest consequences of patriarchal systems, continue to fight for their rights, even under the Taliban's regime of gender apartheid. In November, diaspora, humanitarian, human rights and other community groups gathered in Canberra to discuss what practical steps could be taken to advance Afghan women's rights. This event will launch the report summarising those discussions and compiling those recommendations.

Speakers

- His Excellency
Wahidullah Waissi
Ambassador of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan to Australia, New Zealand and Fiji

- Susan Hutchinson
Executive Director, Azadi-e Zan

- Maryam Zahid
CEO, Afghan Women on the Move

Details

5.30PM, Thurs 1 May 2025
Lecture Theatre 1,
Hedley Bull Building

Australian National University