TWELFTH OCEANIC CONFERENCE ON INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

SCAN FOR MORE INFORMATION

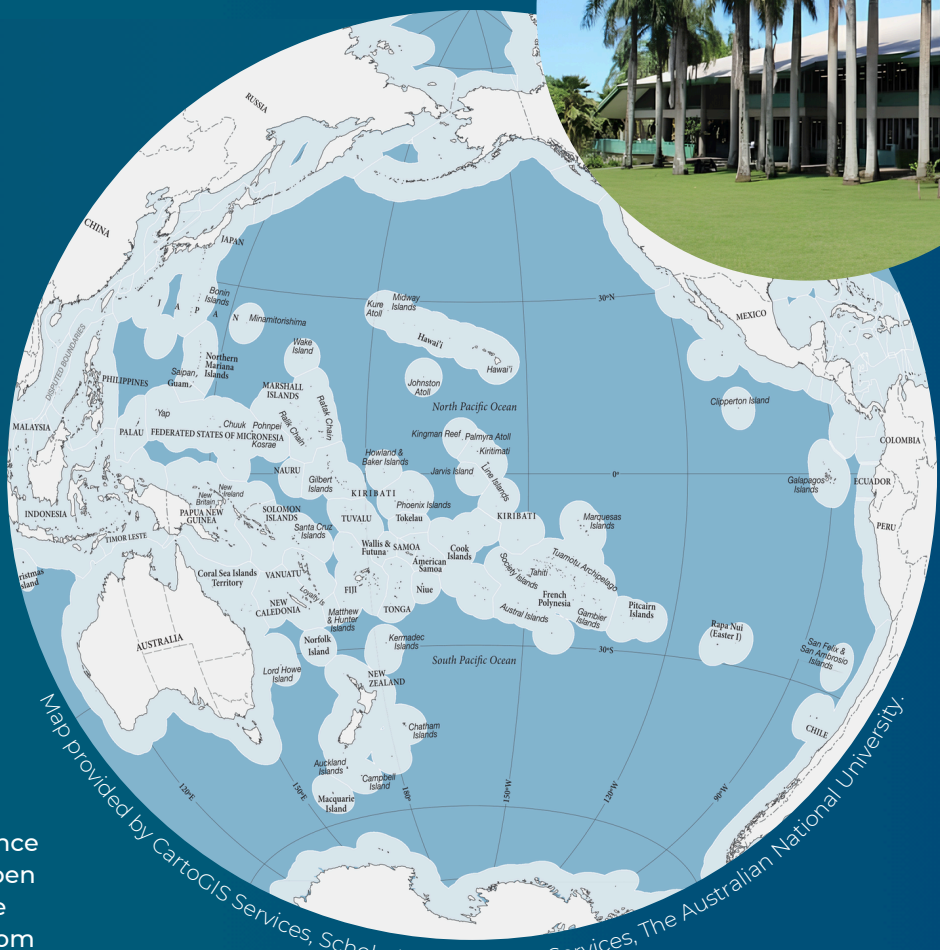
7 – 9 JULY 2027 SUVA | FIJI

The University of the South Pacific

2 SEPTEMBER 2026
Call for Proposals opens

31 OCTOBER 2026
Deadline for paper & panel proposals

18 DECEMBER 2026
Notification of acceptance



The twelfth OCIS conference will be held at The University of the South Pacific in Suva, Fiji, from 7 to 9 July 2027.
The conference is co-hosted by The University of the South Pacific and the Coral Bell School of Asia Pacific Affairs at The Australian National University.

OCIS is Oceania's largest conference for international studies and is open to panels, roundtables, innovative sessions and individual papers from across the field.

Our theme for the 2027 meeting is Pluralism and Hope: World Politics and Pacific International Relations. Can pluralism be the starting point for cultivating a harmonious, inclusive and just global order? To what extent does a politics of hope emerge from a recognition of plural worldviews, knowledges, values and methodologies?

We look forward to welcoming you in Suva in July 2027 to discuss these questions, as well as those that arise from the wide range of themes and approaches that make up contemporary international studies.

Website: ocis.org.au
Contact: ocis@conferencedesign.com.au

USP THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC

Australian National University

Coral Bell School of Asia Pacific Affairs